DRRC RECRUITS VENDORS FOR THE UPCOMING MERCADO DELTA

Edcouch, Texas - The Delta Region Revitalization Corporation (DRRC) is now accepting applications for vendors for the upcoming Mercado Delta.

Mercado Delta is a farmer's and public market where local entrepreneurs, farmers/agricultural producers, artisans, and craft persons sell locally-produced and imported goods and products. Fashioned after a Spanish-style marketplace surrounding a central plaza, Mercado Delta will be a premier central location for economic and tourist activity for the Delta Region.

The DRRC will be offering a free training program for Mercado Delta vendors. Vendors will have the opportunity to learn basic business principles in both English and Spanish.

Applications can be picked up at the city halls in Elsa, Edcouch, and La Villa or downloaded from www.mercadodelta.com. All applications must be mailed to The DRRC at P.O. Box 247, Edcouch, TX 78538. For additional information please contact the DRRC office at (956) 262-0255 or email info@mercadodelta.com.

ABOUT DRRC – The Delta Region Revitalization Corporation is a non-profit tax-exempt organization, assisting communities located within the Delta Region of the Lower Rio Grande Valley in economic development efforts.
